

We will update with 2025 Camps soon!

Camp Phoenix

Sponsored by Blaze Sports, the camp allows kids with limb difference and other disabilities to try adaptive sports, build leadership skills, and develop new friendships.

Dates: June 2-7

Location: Winder, GA

Cost: $400

Ages: 7-18

Sign up: blazesports.org/youth/camp-phoenix

Camp No Limits

Now in its 21st year, this nationwide program accommodates limb-different kids and their families. It features activities designed by prosthetists, PTs, and OTs that support young amputees' independence and build their confidence.

Dates: Ten weekends between May and September

Locations: Nine states

Cost: $500 per person

Ages: Varies by session

Sign up: nolimitsfoundation.org/camps

Nubability Camps

Founded in 2011, Nubability has expanded its programming to include a range of sport-specific camps focused on skiing, baseball, basketball, fishing, shooting, and outdoor recreation. Family members welcome.

Dates: Five weekends between May and September

Locations: Arizona, Illinois, Montana, Minnesota, and Pennsylvania

Cost: $400

Ages: 4-17

Sign up: nubability.org/camps

Adventure Amputee Camp

Now in its 30th year, AAC helps kids with limb difference stretch their potential and their imagination. Activities range from physical challenges (such as river rafting and rope climbing) to relaxing pastimes (swimming, bicycling, crafts).

Dates: 2nd week in July

Location: Bryson City, NC

Cost: None

Ages: 8-17

Sign up: adventureamputeecamp.org/summer-camp-1

USA Patriots Kids Camp

Held annually by the USA Patriots amputee softball team, this one-of-a-kind program provides first-rate softball coaching and competition for kids with limb difference.

Dates: July 7-14

Location: Fond du Lac, WI

Cost: None

Ages: 8-12

Sign up: usapatriotsathletics.org/kidscamp/

Shriner's Un-Limb-ited Activity Camp

Open only to Shriner's patients from all over the country, this exciting camp features a 90-mile whitewater rafting trip on the Green River, through canyons first mapped by amputee explorer John Wesley Powell.

Dates: July 14-20

Location: Salt Lake City, UT

Cost: All expenses paid

Ages: 12-17

Sign up: Email MLowell@shrinenet.org

Amputee Coalition Youth Camp

Formerly known as Paddy Rossbach, this annual get-together helps young amputees connect with each other, build confidence, develop leadership skills, and diminish their sense of isolation. Activities run the gamut from sports to creative arts, STEM projects, wilderness recreation, and more.

Dates: TBD

Location: TBD

Cost: Free

Ages: 10-17

Sign up: amputee-coalition.org/events-programs/youth-camp/